This new book contains ten completely new Masses along with the best and most popular masses from the previous books, revised and updated to conform with the new liturgy.

Arranged thematically, they touch on many of the areas with which primary school children are familiar in their religious education programmes. There is also a selection covering the major dates and occasions during the school year, the liturgical year and the social year of the children and their families.

50 Masses with Children is an invaluable resource for all teachers and priests working with children who are now adapting their celebrations of the Mass to the new liturgy.

So if you are looking for resources such as Children's Sermons, Sunday Liturgy for Children, Catholic Children's Prayerbooks or the like, look no further.
