Be careful with what you wish for... you might just get it.

Faith Fisher is 17 years old and has a plan in mind for her life. She wants to be an elementary school teacher. But until then, she has her eyes on star halfback, Ethan Ronan.

But Ethan pretty much doesn't know she's alive.

When Faith and her best friend go on spring break vacation to the beach with a group of students from their school, Faith hatches an idea. She approaches Ethan's best friend, Darryl, the team's quarterback, with a plan. To qualify for his football scholarship, Darryl needs tutoring for English, one of Faith's best subjects. An easy fix? Tutoring in exchange for an "in" to Ethan's attention.

But it's game on. Will Faith go home dating Ethan or Darryl?

WARNING: This story is a clean romance, but some of the bonus content contain mature themes and language. It is a short-story romance with NO cliffhanger. Enjoy the bonus stories!
