Fans of Melody Carlson, Rachel Hauck, Robin Jones Gunn, and Jenny B. Jones will surely love The Miracle Girls!

Let the other Miracle Girls have their adventures. Sweet, shy Zoe prefers things to stay the same. But, somehow, during her junior year, nothing will.

First, she shoots up four inches and loses her baby fat (and all her favorite jeans). Then Dean, a new student from the East Coast, transfers to Marina Vista and takes an interest in her. Even Dreamy and Ed, her rock-solid parents, begin to show signs of strain as financial pressures mount and her older brother moves back home. In fact, the only thing that has stayed the same is her three best friends: The Miracle Girls.

As Zoe begins to spend more time with Dean for a history project, her devoted boyfriend Marcus fumes. Will they be able to survive his jealousy? Does Zoe even want them to? Meanwhile her home life gets worse, as Dreamy and Ed threaten to throw away everything they've built together as a family.

If Zoe's going to survive junior year, she's got to find her voice, make a plan, and take action--but she can't do it alone. She'll need a little help from Riley, Christine, and Ana. Okay, a lot of help. But that's what Miracle Girls are for.

The Miracle Girls is a four-book young adult fiction series. The novels focus around four very different girls, each living out her faith in the modern world.
