Guide to Owning a Dove Nikki Moustaki

The dove has long been a symbol of peace and freedom, viewed worldwide as a messenger of serenity and depicted as such on many ancient artifacts. Today, these graceful creatures are becoming companion pets for more and more people, and The Guide to Owning a Dove is the perfect reference for both first-time dove owners and experienced dove enthusiasts. This book offers the most current information on all aspects of dove care, including detailed sections on both indoor housing and outdoor aviaries, plus comprehensive chapters on behavior, health, acquiring, and breeding. Written by an avian care and behavior consultant who has written eight previous books on bird care and training, The Guide to Owning a Dove provides everything you need to know about caring for a dove as a pet.
