The Third Book Isaac Iziken

The Third Book' is a fascinating story of a young Scottish woman, Elian, in the 1940s and 60s Scotland.

"Elian told her captivating story; her story was the type that won't go off the mind easily, perhaps it caused mostly the people who had mis-conceptions about her to imagine her unwillingness to marry."

A deal was made on her behalf and in good faith when her mother died; but without her consent. The weight of its consequence came too much to bear.

"A promise to hide the truth was broken! The truth of Edinburgh saga was made known when least expected."
