My Special Friend Pepper Pace

Thirty-four year old Kia is a single mother of two. After two years of celibacy and the gentle nudges from her best friend, Kia decides to venture out to meet men on a dating site. She never thought that she would meet and become interested in a white man, especially one as freaky as Todd. But Todd had an uncanny way of bringing laughter and fun to her life.

Their friendship reveals much about herself and Kia is shocked to find that she might be more of a prude than she had ever imagined. She certainly had never done half the things that Todd describes doing to women. Maybe she should end her self-imposed celibacy and find someone who can satisfy her needs while she continues to search for 'Mr. Right'. And maybe Todd could be the perfect Special Friend.

This short story first appeared in a collection of short stories entitled Love Intertwined Vol 2. The story is intended for adult readers only and contains graphic language and sex.
