El zahorí del Valbanera (Spanish Edition) Juan-Manuel García Ramos

Entre las memorias familiares y la fábula, El zahorí del Valbanera es una meditación de García Ramos sobre la emigración canaria a Cuba en los primeros decenios del siglo XX y sobre uno de los naufragios más dramáticos de la historia de la marina mercante española.

La aventura atlántica de cuatro tinerfeños, su regreso a la tierra natal, su implicación en la contienda civil de 1936-1939 y la crisis económica que ese suceso fratricida acarreó en las Islas Canarias, dejando en la pobreza a nuestras poblaciones, en especial a las rurales, entre las que desarrolla su vida uno de esos cuatro tinerfeños, José Aquilino Ramos, joven emigrante, soldado sin convicción y agricultor de Valle de Guerra hasta su muerte.

Todo ello contado por un nieto atento a las conversaciones, las cavilaciones y los poderes proféticos de un abuelo que se agiganta a la hora de recuperarlo para la escritura narrativa.
