In White Witch, Jax Pherson fled the darkest of covens to escape from her own father's evil. In that life-and-death battle, she gained staggering power. Power so intense, so dangerous, she fears the darkness that now dwells inside her like a living thing. If she can't control the power, she may become as evil as the witches she conquered.

For a brief moment, her courage was rewarded. She found everything she'd ever wanted. A normal life. An amazing boyfriend. An envy-worthy best friend.

Now, in Bane, her past puts those she loves in danger again, forcing another confrontation with the covens. Jax must leave her new life behind.

With her friend Egan, she heads for the one place that might hold the answers she desperately needs--Salem, Massachusetts. There, her research unearths a hopeful but shocking discovery: The Bane, a secret group of witches dedicated to the same cause as Jax--thwarting the covens.

Finding The Bane is easier said than done; Jax must use all her skills in the search, while evading a deadly witch hunter. As the tension rises, her sinister powers begin to tempt her. If she succumbs, Jax may have as much to fear from the hunter and The Bane as from the evil covens.

"Fresh, fun, and dangerous! I can't wait for the next one!"

-- Sherrilyn Kenyon, #1 NYT bestselling author of the Dark-Hunter series on White Witch

"This is definitely the kind of book that I most enjoy reading--it reminded me of Kim Harrison's The Hollows series or Kelley Armstrong's Women of the Otherworld series. Supernatural + good powerful girl who can kick butt = WINNER!"

-- Mandi Kaye on Amazon.com on White Witch
