The Drowned Book: Picador Classic Sean O'Brien

With an introduction by Helen Dunmore

*Come for a walk down the river road,
For though you're all a long time dead
The waters part to let us pass*

*The way we'd go on summer nights
In the times we were children
And thought we were lovers.*

The Drowned Book is a work of memory, commemoration and loss, dominated by elegies for those the author has loved and admired. Sean O'Brien's exquisite collection is powerfully affecting, sad and often deeply funny; but it is also a dramatically compelling book - disquieting, even - and full of warnings. As the book unfolds, O'Brien's verse occupies an increasingly dark, subterranean territory - where the waters are rising, threatening to overwhelm and ruin the world above.

Winner of both the T. S. Eliot and Forward prizes, The Drowned Book is an extraordinary collection, a classic from one of the leading poets of our time.
