El rostro y el alma: Siete ensayos fisiognómicos (Spanish Edition) Francisco González Crussí

"El rostro con que venimos al mundo es una de tantas prendas que nos tocan en el despiadado juego de azar que es el destino". He aquí la premisa a partir de la cual el doctor González Crussí -uno de los médicos humanistas más reconocidos de nuestro tiempo- construye estos siete ensayos fisiognómicos: una obra única que une la curiosidad, la erudición, la amenidad y el sentido del humor para ofrecer un festín literario irrepetible.

"Muchos pensarán que la fisiognomía y la frenología no son otra cosa que torpes esfuerzos por construir una ciencia# Pero yo creo vislumbrar algo más: un afán que no carece de nobleza: el tenaz proyecto de comprender el lenguaje del rostro. Porque los rostros hablan, aun sin tener voz. Es como si dijeran al observador: "Déjame que te cuente un poco de mi persona y de mi propia historia: de dónde vengo; si me siento alegre y exultante, o triste y deprimido; y si estoy sano o me encuentro enfermo. Te hago saber que llevo en las mejillasla marca de un trauma que sufrí hace tiempo, o el rubor de mi vergüenza y mi natural timidez. Te señalo las trazas que una enfermedad me ha dejado. Y te cuento que, a pesar mío, porto en mi piel las cicatrices de los zarpazos de los años, o que, por el contrario, llevo conmigo el contento, el alborozo y la frescura de la juventud. Con todo y que eres un perfecto desconocido para mí, mi rostro tiene mucho que contarte; sólo te pido, por favor, no lo malinterpretes"."
