Worship Anthology S. Craggs

Worship leaders of all backgrounds and responsibilities will use this amazing book again and again - and again. Its wealth of ideas, stories, prayers and other forms of worship can be used as they are presented or readers can adapt them easily for their own needs. Men and women who lead worship can dip in and dip out of this book to find new angles and new inspiration. The book is firmly intended for all but the particular perspective of women gives the material a freshness that many standard worship books lack. The material is well ordered to make it easy for people in a hurry to find the resources that will be most useful to them at that time.
