This deliciously illustrated modern-day Cinderella tale (with a healthier dose of sisterly love) is sure to enchant young fashionistas . . . or anyone with a sister.

Charlotte Bartlett-Kruger is the youngest of six sisters, which means she gets lots of hand-me-downs. And while she is happy to inherit her sisters' well-loved toys, dresses are a different story. Dresses just aren't pretty by the time they are passed down to Charlotte.

When her parents decide to have a fancy dress-up party, Charlotte is so embarrassed by her clothes that she would rather skip the party than go in something tattered and old. But her sisters just might have an extraordinary surprise in store for her. . . .
