Katrina (Roman) (Spanish Edition) Sally Salminem Dührkopf

Una historia de lucha, de orgullo y de entereza, una profunda reflexión sobre la condición de la mujer encarnada en el poderoso e inolvidable personaje de Katrina. Katrina es una bella joven proveniente de una rica familia campesina que, desatendiendo a la razón, se casa con un hombre al que acaba de conocer y va tras él en busca de la tierra maravillosa que le ha prometido. Pronto, los sueños se convierten en desengaño y decepción, en miseria y en trabajo duro. No son suficientes argumentos como para que la bella Katrina renuncie a la elección de una vida que hizo al salir de su pueblo. Esta es una historia de lucha, de orgullo y de entereza, una profunda reflexión sobre la condición de la mujer encarnada en el poderoso e inolvidable personaje de Katrina. Sally Salminen (Vardö, islas Åland, 1906-1976) es una novelista finlandesa en lengua sueca internacionalmente reconocida. Octava de doce hermanos, de niña tenía la idea de convertirse en escritora. En 1930, Sally y su hermana Aili se trasladaron a Nueva York, donde comenzó el manuscrito de su primera y más famosa novela, Katrina (1936), con la que ganó el premio convocado por el editor Holger Schildts Förlag, y que supuso todo un éxito nada más publicarse, llegando a traducirse a más de veinte idiomas.
