ONE CAR RIDE. TWO SISTERS. A MONSTROUS FATE.

Casper, Wyoming:1973. Eleven-year-old Amy Burrige rides with her eighteen-year-old sister, Becky, to the grocery store. When they finish their shopping, Becky's car gets a flat tire. Two men politely offer them a ride home. But they were anything but Good Samaritans. The girls would suffer unspeakable crimes at the hands of these men before being thrown from a bridge into the North Platte River. One miraculously survived. The other did not.

Years later, author and journalist Ron Franscell--who lived in Casper at the time of the crime, and was a friend to Amy and Becky--can't forget Wyoming's most shocking story of abduction, rape, and murder. Neither could Becky, the surviving sister. The two men who violated her and Amy were sentenced to life in prison, but the demons of her past kept haunting Becky...until she met her fate years later at the same bridge where she'd lost her sister.

Dominic Maddock:

As a scholar exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library in order to make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's internal or real their leisure activity. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring and also can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country.
