Storie complicate. La scuola al di là delle riforme (Italian Edition) Bartolomea Granieri

Comprendere le nuove forme che il disagio e la sofferenza assumono a scuola rappresenta una sfida ma anche una risorsa per i docenti interessati ad arricchire sia la conoscenza dei processi di apprendimento/insegnamento, sia la capacità di aiutare gli allievi a crescere.

Le difficoltà di apprendimento, i disturbi nella capacità di lavorare e di avere relazioni con gli altri, i comportamenti distruttivi e autodistruttivi degli allievi “difficili” sono approfonditi attraverso la presentazione dei percorsi di supervisione e di formazione a carattere psicologico, affrontati dai docenti di ogni ordine di scuola, per imparare a pensare e narrare quelle situazioni che appaiono bloccate e senza speranza. Lo scopo è quello di rendere più comprensibili e più utilizzabili nella pratica didattica i contributi teorici e metodologici presenti nel testo.

Fra una realtà sempre più complessa e il susseguirsi di riforme incalzanti, diventano cruciali le capacità di osservazione e di dialogo con l’allievo, con il collega e con il genitore, per costruire una relazione più libera da quei preconcetti e da quelle convinzioni che impediscono talvolta di sentire e pensare.
